iTHINK Financial Credit Union ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY

INTRODUCTION

At iTHINK Financial Credit Union ("iTHINK Financial," "Company," "we," "our," or "us"), we value the trust you and all our members place in us. Protecting the privacy, confidentiality, and security of your personal and financial information is a core part of our mission and a responsibility we take seriously.

This Online Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy") describes the types of information we may collect from you or that you may provide when you visit or use our website, mobile applications, or other online services (collectively, our "Site"). This policy also describes our practices for collecting, using, maintaining, protecting, and disclosing that information. If you seek, apply for, or obtain a financial product or service with us, we will use and share that information we collect from or about you in accordance with our Privacy Notice. This Privacy Policy does not apply to information collected by us offline or by any third party, including through applications, content, or advertising that may link to or be accessible from or through the Site.

Please read this policy carefully to understand our practices regarding your information and how we manage it. By accessing or using the Site, you agree to this Privacy Policy.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect information from and about users of our Site, including information you provide directly through submitted forms or accessed accounts, information collected automatically when you interact with the Site, and information we receive from third parties and service providers that support account servicing, fraud prevention, analytics, marketing, application processing, security, and related business operations. For example, we may collect information, including but not limited to:

- Personal Identifiers – Like your name, mailing address, email address, phone number, date of birth, username and password, and other information that directly identifies you.
- Account Information – Like account number, credit/debit card number, account history, account balances, loan details, vehicle or property information, and joint account holders, and other information related to your accounts and applications.
- Business Information – Like business-related information (e.g., business name, address, revenue, and industry type), business contact, and professional information.
- Transaction Information – Like transaction details when you transfer money to or from your accounts, third party billing information or statements, credit/debit card purchases, payment or transaction history, and payment card details.
- Credit Report Information – Like your credit score, credit history, and other information that we receive from credit reporting agencies.
- Demographic Information – Like gender, marital status, age, citizenship, household size/composition, education information, income, occupation, veteran or military status, and employment status.
- Geolocation Information – Like internet protocol address, device location, and any information used to identify your physical location.

- Device Information – Like your device type, web browser type and version, operating system type and version, display/screen settings, language preferences, device contacts (e.g., to facilitate payments), photos (e.g., to deposit checks), mobile network information, general location (e.g., city, state, or country), precise location (e.g., latitude/longitude to find a nearby branch or ATM), cookie IDs, device IDs, mobile advertising IDs, and likely connections among different browsers and devices that you use.
- Online/Mobile Activity Information – Like login data, communication preferences, search history, information about how you use and interact with our Site (including content viewed, links clicked, and features used), when and how often you use our Site, and the webpage from where you were directed to our Site.
- Marketing Information – Like your marketing preferences, information about products or services, and inferences based on your interactions with us or our partners (e.g., Online/Mobile Activity Data used for targeted advertising).
- Survey and Research Information – Like your responses to questionnaires, surveys, requests for feedback, and research activities.

If you inquire about or apply for a job at iTHINK Financial Credit Union through our Site, we or an authorized third party may also collect:

- Employment Application Information – Like professional, employment-related, and education history collected through the Site about job applicants, employees, associates, contractors, or other members of our workforce.

AUTOMATIC DATA COLLECTION AND TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

As you interact with our Site, we may use automatic data collection technologies to collect certain information about your device, browsing actions, and patterns, including:

- Details of your visits to our Site, including traffic data, location data, logs, and other communication data and the resources that you access and use on the Site.
- Information about your device and internet connection, including your IP address, operating system, and browser type.

The information we collect automatically may include personal information, or we may maintain it or associate it with personal information we already have. It helps us to improve our Site and to deliver a better and more personalized service, including but not limited to:

- Estimate our audience size and usage patterns.
- Store information about your preferences, allowing us to customize our Site according to your individual interests.
- Speed up your searches.
- Recognize you when you return to our Site.
- Measure user interactions and advertising campaign performance for programmatic advertising and other online advertising purposes, including the automated, real-time buying and selling of digital ad placements across websites, mobile apps, video, connected TV, and other channels.

The technologies we use for this automatic data collection and tracking may include:

- Server Logs – Server logs automatically capture details of your online interactions with us, such as the time and date of your website visit.
- Cookies – Cookies are small text files placed on your device or browser when you visit a website. They help websites function, remember preferences, understand site usage, and support analytics or advertising. For instance, we or our service providers may use cookies to recognize your device, measure website performance, or understand how you interact with our website.
- Pixels/Web Beacons/Web tags – Pixels, web beacons, and web tags are an image or small code in a website or online ad. They enable companies (us or our service providers) to set or read cookies or transfer data to their servers when you load a webpage or interact with online content. For instance, our service providers or we might use pixels to see if you have interacted with part of our website or viewed an online ad.
- Third Party Plugins – Plugins from other companies, including social media companies (for example, through a “Share” or “Like” button) might collect data about your page visits and share it with the plugin creator, even if you do not click on a button. Their use is governed by the creators' privacy policies and terms.
- Session Replay/Heatmaps – Session replay technology uses trackers added to a user's browser to record how they navigate a website (mouse clicks, movements, and scrolling) and interact with content. A heatmap is a visual representation of user interaction on a website, highlighting sections with more clicks and attention.

THIRD-PARTY TRACKING AND TARGETED ADVERTISING

Some content or applications, including advertisements, on the Site are served by third parties, including advertisers, ad networks and servers, content providers, and application providers. These third parties may use automatic data and tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use the Site. The information they collect may be associated with your personal information, or they may collect information, including personal information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. They may use this information to provide you with interest-based (behavioral) advertising or other targeted content on third-party websites and mobile apps, including online advertisements for our products and services.

We do not control their third-party data collection and tracking technologies or how they may be used. If you have any questions about an advertisement or other targeted content, you should contact the third party responsible directly. For information about how you can opt out of receiving targeted advertising from certain third parties, please see the third-party list detailed below in this policy and our Privacy Notice.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We use information that we collect about you or that you provide to us for various purposes, depending on how you interact with us, including, but not limited to:

- Providing Products and Services – evaluating your applications for our products and services, managing your accounts, offering customer support, communicating with you, and providing online tools.
- Identity Verification and Fraud Prevention – verifying your identity when you apply for products or services, authenticating your login credentials, confirming your location to grant access to - your accounts, storing security questions for future verification, assessing fraud risk, and detecting fraudulent transactions.

- Security – monitoring network logs, detecting incidents, conducting investigations, and protecting against malicious activities.
- Advertising – sending you offers, displaying online ads, targeting offers or promotions, providing sweepstakes, conducting market research, and improving our marketing.
- Analytics – analyzing website usage, performance, mobile application features, user interface and experience, feature testing, and debugging.
- Improving Products and Services – personalizing and optimizing website experiences, recognizing users across devices and browsers, enhancing existing products and services, and developing new ones.
- Legal and Business Purposes – complying with laws, responding to lawsuits and investigations, defending legal claims, exercising our rights (including for collections on delinquent accounts), resolving disputes, conducting credit risk analysis and reporting, performing compliance and institutional risk control activities, and overall business operations.
- Aggregating or Deidentifying Information – using or modifying information to prevent identification of you, for example, compiling aggregated statistics to understand trends or feature usage. Aggregated and de-identified data is not subject to this Online Privacy Policy.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

We may disclose personal information that we collect, or you provide, as follows:

- Affiliates and Acquisitions – We may share information with our affiliates to deliver products and services and for other business purposes as stated in our Privacy Notice. If we are to be acquired by or merged with another company, we will share information with the acquiring or merging company, including during negotiations.
- Business Partners – We may share information with companies that we have partnered with to offer or enhance products and services.
- Advertising Providers – We may allow companies to collect information through our Site to provide us with advertising services, including targeted or behavioral advertising.
- Service Providers – We may share your information with service providers who assist us with website administration, surveys, technical support, payment processing, or service fulfillment, or to fulfill your request for their services.
- Credit Reporting Agencies – We share information with credit reporting agencies like Experian, Transunion, and Equifax to report or learn about your financial history and for other lawful purposes.
- Legal Obligations – We may disclose information to government authorities or law enforcement due to legal requirements, such as subpoenas, warrants, court orders, or other legal processes. Information may also be shared to establish or exercise our rights, defend against legal claims, investigate illegal activities, suspected fraud, safety issues, or policy violations.
- Other Third Parties with Your Consent – We may disclose your information to third parties with your consent. For example, you might authorize third parties to access your information for financial services like account aggregation, payments, or tax preparation. Their privacy policies govern the use of your data. We may block third party access without notice for security reasons.

6.18.2026

We may disclose aggregated information about our users, and information that does not identify any individual, without restriction.

CHOICES ABOUT THE USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

We strive to provide you with choices regarding the personal information you provide us with. Where required by law, we obtain your consent before deploying non-essential cookies, pixels, session replay technologies, advertising technologies, or similar tracking tools. You may withdraw or modify your consent preferences at any time through our consent-management tools. Additionally, the following may provide you with certain control over your information:

- Universal Opt-Out – We support the Global Privacy Control (GPC), which is a setting that allows you to communicate your privacy preferences to websites and online services that you visit. When we detect a GPC signal from a browser, our Site treats the browser as opted out and stops sharing personal information for certain targeted advertising purposes, in accordance with applicable laws. Please visit the Global Privacy Control website to learn more about the setting and how to enable it on your browser.
- Interest-Based Advertising – We do not control third parties' collection or use of your information to serve interest-based advertising. However, third parties that are members of certain self-regulatory associations provide you with ways to choose not to have your information collected or used in this way. You can opt out of receiving targeted ads from these third parties by visiting the Digital Advertising Alliance Opt Out Page, the Network Advertising Initiative Opt Out Page, and by adjusting the privacy settings on your mobile device.
- Manage Cookies on Your Devices – You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this Site may not be accessible or function properly. Please note that due to a lack of consistent standards across browsers, our Site does not respond to “do not track” browser settings.
- Google – The Site sends information to Google Analytics for the purpose of providing us with the ability to conduct technical and statistical analysis on the Site's performance. Google Ad Manager uses cookies and other tracking technology to collect information about a user's website activity, allowing Google and its partners to deliver targeted ads based on browsing history, online behavior, and past ad interactions across different websites. You can find more information about Google's privacy practices and available privacy, advertising, and account controls by reviewing Google's privacy notices and settings. You may also be able to limit certain tracking through your browser or mobile device settings and through any consent choices presented on our Site. How Google uses information from sites or apps that use our services: <https://policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites>. You can opt-out of having your Site activity available to Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on for the Chrome browser: <https://chromewebstore.google.com/detail/google-analytics-opt-out/flfaojicojecljbmefodhfapmkgchcbnh?hl=en>. You can manage your advertising preferences on Google sites and apps (including YouTube) here: <https://myadcenter.google.com/>.

- Meta (Facebook and Instagram) – The Site may use Meta. The Meta pixel relies on Facebook and Instagram cookies, which enable Meta to match Site visitors to their respective Facebook and Instagram user accounts to deliver targeted advertisements. Meta Pixel also allows us to track the effectiveness of Facebook and Instagram ads for statistical and market research purposes. Please review Meta's privacy policy for more information about Meta's privacy practices: <https://www.facebook.com/policy.php> and <https://privacycenter.instagram.com/policy>. DATA SECURITY

We have an information security program that includes administrative, technical, and physical measures designed to protect information within our Company. Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we do our best to protect your personal information in compliance with applicable laws, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to our Site. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We have official pages on social media platforms like Instagram, Meta/Facebook, Pinterest, YouTube, and LinkedIn. When you engage with us there, we may gather information such as your likes, interests, and preferences. Social media companies may collect and share information about you with us.

Posts on our social media pages – including pictures, comments, suggestions, or complaints – are visible to other users. Avoid sharing sensitive personal or confidential information in your posts. Please review the privacy policies of our social media partners when using those platforms.

CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

Our Site is not directed to children under thirteen, and we do not knowingly collect personal information online from children under thirteen without appropriate consent where required by law. If iTHINK Financial elects in the future to market or solicit such information, we shall develop and implement appropriate policies and procedures before engaging in those activities.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we do, we will post the revised version on our Site and update the "Last Updated" date above. We may provide additional notice where required by law. Your continued use of the Site after any such changes is deemed acceptance of the revised Privacy Policy.
